

FRIENDS OF WARRANDYTE STATE PARK Inc.

February March

1993 Calendar

FEBRUARY 28th 100pm

"Willows & Water Things" Come along to Black Flat (via Tills Drive) to take part in a marvellous River Experience. We will be finding out how many living things are in the river just near the orchard and also inspecting the big wetland near Skip Moyle. Alistair Traill will be the leader of the pack. We will be having a speakers from C.O.D.A.T. and Park Staff to excite you all on willow removal, river water quality and protection. PRIOR to this we plan a hatchet job - ringbarking the willows near the old orchard -BYO Tomahawk and magnifying glasses! Wear whatever you can get wet in. Picnic tea in the old Mullens orchard. Enquiries Park Office or Committee.
